Carol Willis: Selected Bibliography

“The Skyscraper Empire State Building: Essential New York”
SSA Lecture--September 23, 2010

About:
Carol Willis is founding director and curator of NYC’s Skyscraper Museum and a professor of urban studies and planning at Columbia University. She has researched, taught, and written widely about the history of American city building and is the author of Form Follows Finance: Skyscrapers and Skylines in New York and Chicago (2008), which received an AIA book award and was named "Best Book on North American Urbanism, 1995" by the Urban History Association. Willis also edited Building the Empire State, focusing on the construction of the New York skyscraper. She has curated many exhibits at the museum including Giants: The Twin Towers and the Twentieth Century, World's Tallest Building: Burj Dubai and New York Modern. Willis earned her MA and MPhil from Columbia.

Books:

Books listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library unless otherwise indicated.
Articles:  (Selected from 1984-2000)

Note: a profile of Carol Willis.

Note: About the history of the Skyscraper Museum founded by Carol Willis in 1996.

Note: Review of the Ferris classic now containing an essay by Carol Willis.

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library unless otherwise noted.

Web Sites:

