Julia Czerniak: Selected Bibliography

“Formerly Urban”
Spitzer School of Architecture Lecture – October 21, 2013

About:

Julia Czerniak is an associate professor of architecture at Syracuse University and the inaugural director (in 2004) of UPSTATE, the university’s center for design, research and real estate. She is also a registered landscape architect and founder with Mark Linder of CLEAR, an interdisciplinary design practice. Her design work focuses on urban landscapes. Most recently, her collaborations have won the Syracuse Connective Corridor competition, the artNET Public Art competition in Toledo, Ohio; and the Pittsburgh Charm Bracelet competition. She earned her landscape architecture degree from Penn State and her MArch from Princeton.

Books:

Books listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library except where noted.

Articles: (Selected from 1993 to 2010)

Participants included Paul Goldberger, Rodolfo Machado, Farshid Moussavi, Julia Czerniak and others.

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library except where noted.

Web Sites:

UPSTATE upstate.syr.edu/

Julia Czerniak was the first director of this center for design, research and real estate at Syracuse University. “Founded in 2004, UPSTATE advocates, initiates and facilitates projects that apply innovative design research to challenges – economic, environmental, political, and social – facing communities.”

_________________________

Judy Connorton, Architecture Librarian
September 2013

Image: bettercities.net