Mark Burry: Selected Bibliography

“The Digital Potential of Antoni Gaudi’s Singular Approach to Design”
Spitzer School of Architecture Lecture – November 20, 2014

About:

Mark Burry, senior architect to the Sagrada Familia Basilica Foundation since 1979, is also a professor and author. He studied architecture at Cambridge University. A native New Zealander, he is currently the Founding Director of the Melbourne, Australia's RMIT University's Design Research Institute, established in 2008. Prior to that in 2001 he was the Founding Director of the university's state-of-the-art Spatial Information Architecture Laboratory, dedicated to all aspects of contemporary spatial design activity. A recipient of numerous awards for his innovative research, Burry has been a visiting professor at universities worldwide including MIT and the University of Liverpool.

Books:

Articles:

Web Sites:

“The Future Is Here - Mark Burry.” 2014. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KY73QrGVWjg

“Mark Burry: University of Michigan Taubman College Future of Technology.” 2010. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3kv05nhn7XQ

________________________

Judy Connorton, Architecture Librarian

Image: designresearch.rmit.edu.au

November 2014