Maria Rubert de Ventós: Selected Bibliography

“Barcelona Backdrop”
Spitzer School of Architecture Lecture – October 30, 2014

About:
An architect and urban designer in Barcelona, Maria Rubert de Ventós earned her BArch and her PhD from the Polytechnic University of Catalonia. She currently teaches urbanism in both the master’s and doctoral programs at the Barcelona School of Architecture (UPC). She has also taught at universities worldwide including NYU. Her research focuses on urban history, public space, and mobility and landscape, topics about which she’s written widely. She is co-editor of the journal D’UR and and was awarded the 2006 National Urbanism Prize for journalism.

Books:

Articles:

Web Sites:

MARIA DE VENTÓS RUBERT. mariarubertarquitecta.blogspot.com/

________________________

Judy Connorton, Architecture Librarian                        Image: http://mariarubertarquitecta.blogspot.com/

October 2014