Judith LeClerc & Jaime Coll

Selected Bibliography

“COLL-LECLERC, A Barcelona Contemporary Practice”
Lecture – October 29, 2015

About:

Judith LECLERC is a B.Arch. Mc Gill University, Montréal (1992), Architect ETSABarcelona (2002). Teaches architectural design at ETSABarcelona since 2010 and previously at ESARQ and several Canadian universities: Mc Gill, Montréal and Calgary.

COLL-LECLERC, founded in 1996, is a Barcelona-based practice dedicated to the research on New Urban Landscapes: new answers for the contemporary public space, architecture, landscape and infrastructure in the city.

Books:

Books listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library except where noted.

Articles: (Selected from 2001 to 2008)

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library except where noted.

Websites:

COLLECLERC Arquitectos S. L. P.  http://www.coll-leclerc.com/

Nilda Sanchez-Rodriguez, Architecture Librarian
October 2015

Images: http://ssa1.ccny.cuny.edu/