Kenneth Frampton: Selected Bibliography

“What Sullivan Meant in the Past and What he Offers the Present”

Spitzer School of Architecture Lecture — March 7, 2013

About:

Kenneth Frampton was trained as an architect at the Architectural Association School of Architecture, London. After practicing for a number of years in the United Kingdom and in Israel, he served as the editor of the journal Architectural Design. He has taught at the Royal College of Art, the ETH Zurich, EPFL Lausanne, the Accademia di Architettura in Mendrisio, and the Berlage Institute in The Netherlands. He is currently Ware Professor of Architecture at the GSAPP, Columbia University, New York. Professor Frampton is a prolific author and editor.

Books:

________________________. Architecture as material culture. Oro, 2013. On Order

Kengo Kuma: Complete Works Thames & Hudson, 2013. ON ORDER.

Books listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library.

Articles (Selected from 1993 – 2000)

“The knight’s move: from the early houses to the large public buildings raised later, the oeuvre of Souto de Moura is a critical revision of modernity’s legacy.” Frampton, Kenneth. AV monografías = AV monographs, 2011 Sept.-Oct., n.151, p.6-15.

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Library.

Web Sites:

Judy Connorton, Architecture Librarian
March 2013