Carter Wiseman: Selected Bibliography

“Heterodoxia Architectonica”

About:
Carter Wiseman is a well published writer and was also the architectural critic at New York Magazine for sixteen years. He has written on architecture and design for Architectural Record, Interior Design, and ARTnews, among other publications. Currently he is a lecturer at the Yale School of Architecture where he teaches classes on writing on architecture and on modern architectural criticism. Wiseman received his MA in architectural history from Columbia and was a Loeb Fellow in Advanced Environmental Studies at Harvard’s GSD.

Books:

These titles are available in the CCNY Architecture Library unless otherwise noted.

Articles: (Selected from 1982 to 2008)

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library.

Judy Connorton, Architecture Librarian
January 2013