Ghislaine Viñas: Selected Bibliography

“Passion”
Spitzer School of Architecture Lecture – February 6, 2014

About:

Born in the Netherlands and raised in South Africa, Ghislaine Viñas studied design at Philadelphia University and established her interior design studio Ghislaine Viñas Interior Design in 1999, when commissioned to do a complete build-out of a 9,000-sq-ft office/art gallery in the Starrett Lehigh Building in New York’s Chelsea art district. Her firm’s work consists of projects, both commercial and residential, ranging from New York City apartments, townhouses, lofts and an art gallery in Chelsea, to offices and homes in Los Angeles, New Jersey, Holland, Pennsylvania and Connecticut. The firm was awarded the Interior Design Merit Award for Best of Year in the residential category in 2007, 2008 and 2011 and has won the Interior Design Best of Year award in 2010 & 2012. In 2007 she won the Pantone “Color Outside the Lines” competition for color use in residential interiors, as well receiving third place in the Electrolux, “The Lived-In Kitchen”, design competition and honorable mention in the same competition in 2012. The firm was awarded the prestigious Benjamin Moore Hue Award in 2010 for its use of color in residential interiors and has been featured in a number of design journals.
