Elisabetta Terragni, a graduate of the Milan Polytechnic, is founder and principal of her studio in Como, Italy. She is a tenured faculty member at the Spitzer School of Architecture where she currently teaches a master’s design studio as well as a graduate course in Visual Studies. She has also taught studios elsewhere in the US as well as in Germany, Italy, and Switzerland. Her architectural practice focuses on devising solutions to unconventional problems. Her team has done innovative work in crafting exhibition sites from abandoned infrastructures or industrial sites.

Articles (Selected from 1991 to 2012):

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library unless otherwise noted.

Web Sites:

Studio Terragni Architetti. architetti.terragni.eu

“RE-CYCLE: Strategies for Architecture, City and Planet.” A discussion at the Van Alen Institute in April 2012. vimeo.com/40938777