About:

Ruth Berktold is founder and owner of YES architecture, a firm based in Munich, and New York. In 2002, she became a tenured professor at the University of Applied Sciences in Munich. Her field of research is Architectural Design and the Conceptual Approach to Computer-integrated Design. She has taught at the NTNU Trondheim in Norway, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Parsons School of Design in New York. Before starting her own office, Ruth worked for Behnisch and Partner, Stuttgart, Prof. Eisele und Fritz, Darmstadt, Bernard Tschumi, Jim Polshek and Asymptote in New York, and designed international competitions for clients such as Daimler Chrysler and BMW. She has participated in many juries at different universities, as well as architectural competitions and design awards. In 2004, YES architecture was awarded the commission for the new UN-Campus named World Conference Center – Internationales Konferenzzentrum Bundeshaus in Bonn.

Articles (2006-2015):

Articles listed above are available in the CCNY Architecture Library except where noted.

Website: YES Architecture firm http://www.yes-architecture.com